MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION GUIDE

1. Participants are required to submit completed original research papers to the conference.
2. Manuscripts should be submitted in electronic format to iepas@cesran.org
3. Manuscripts submitted to IEPAS should be original contributions and should not be under consideration for any other publication at the same time.
4. Manuscripts submitted for consideration of publication (see the section below) are subject to preliminary editorial review and blind-review. The Editors and referees use three-step guidelines in assessing submissions: a) Literary quality: writing style, usage of the language, organization of the text, b) Use of references: referencing, sources, relationships of the footnotes to the text, and c) Scholarship quality: depth of the research, quality, contribution originality, and plausibility of the argument. Upon the referees' decision, the papers will be published in an edited book, in the JEPAS journal, or in the congress proceedings
5. Manuscripts should be one space throughout and typed in English on single sides of A4 paper. Pages should be numbered consecutively.
6. Manuscripts should be arranged in the following order of presentation: First sheet: title, subtitle (if any), author(s), name(s), affiliation, full postal address, telephone and fax numbers. Subsequent sheets: main body of text, list of references and footnotes, appendices, tables.
7. Manuscripts as a rule should not exceed 10.000 words, not including footnotes.
8. Authors are responsible for ensuring that their papers conform to the IEPAS style.
9. Titles in the article should be 12 point, bold and in uppercase form.
10. Each manuscript should be summarized in an abstract, which should describe the main arguments and conclusions of the manuscripts. And also, each manuscript should include up to five keywords.
11. Notes should be numbered consecutively throughout the article and indicated in the text by a raised numeral, referring to the list of notes, which should be placed at the end of the article. Notes should be kept to a minimum. References to books should give the author's surname preceded by the initial letters of his/her forename, the title of the book should be in italics, and the place, publisher and year of publication should follow in brackets. References to articles should give the author's forename and surname, the title of the article in single quotation marks, the name of publication underlined the number of volume in Arabic numerals, the year of publication in brackets and the page numbers. Subsequent references to a book or article may be made only the author's name.

12. Tables and figures should be embedded in the text. A short descriptive title should appear above each table with a clear legend and any footnotes suitably identified below. All units must be included. Figures should be completely labeled, taking into account necessary reduction.

PUBLICATION OPPORTUNITIES

Conference participants have an opportunity to submit their papers to:

1. Journal of Eurasian Politics and Society (JEPAS)
2. An Edited Book, which will be published in the UK (the name of the publisher will be announced soon).

Conference participants may like their paper considered for publication in the journal or the book. The conference academic committee will be in charge for selection and evaluation of the potential contributions to the special issue and the edited book. Along with the committee's evaluation, the papers will be sent to external blind-review yet the final decision will be made by the academic committee.
